¶ Opening Hymn

277a t2 Jesus shall reign

¶ Collect

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

¶ First Reading

Jeremiah 29.1-4

¶ Psalm 66

- 1 Be joyful in God, all the earth; sing the glory of his name; sing the glory of his praise.
- 2 Say to God, 'How awesome are your deeds! Because of your great strength your enemies shall bow before you.
- 3 'All the earth shall worship you, sing to you, sing praise to your name.'
- 4 Come now and behold the works of God, how wonderful he is in his dealings with humankind.
- 5 He turned the sea into dry land; the river they passed through on foot; there we rejoiced in him.
- 6 In his might he rules for ever; his eyes keep watch over the nations; let no rebel rise up against him.
- 7 Bless our God, O you peoples; make the voice of his praise to be heard,
- 8 Who holds our souls in life and suffers not our feet to slip.

9 For you, O God, have proved us; you have tried us as silver is tried.

10 You brought us into the snare; you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.

11 You let enemies ride over our heads; we went through fire and water; but you brought us out into a place of liberty.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now and shall be for ever, Amen

¶ Second Reading

2 Timothy 2.8-15

Gospel

Luke 17.11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

¶ Help! We need somebody...

We are in need of volunteers to help with the different groups based at St Mary's that serve the wider church and parish community. At the moment, we are looking for people who might wish to become involved with:

Sunday Club – where our children and young people learn, worship and have fun during the Parish Eucharist on Sundays.

Monday Club – which offers a friendly meeting place, tea and cake, to elderly residents of the parish on Monday afternoons.

Little Tots – which is a play group for local young families meeting on Thursday mornings.

Christenings – where it would be lovely to extend a warm welcome to families and their friends when christenings are celebrated outside the Parish Eucharist.

The Herald – our community newspaper, whose editor, Matthew Eade, is looking for a deputy editor and advertising manager.

Care for our buildings and churchyard – which are being maintained by a small group of church members. If you can help us to help others, please speak to the Rector.
